

SHUTTLEWORTH

'I love Summer plants & trees' trail

This fun trail contains just some of the plants and trees that are identifiable at this time of year.

Sword Lily

Gorgeous red flowers for this distinctive plant.

Scientific name:
Crocasmia 'lucifer'

Found some!

Hydrangea

Pink and white flowers, that are very popular with insects.

Scientific name:
Hydrangea 'Veitchii'

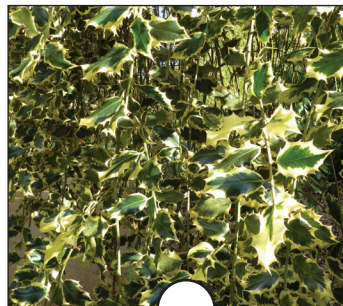

Found some!

Weeping Holly

Distinctive weeping branches make this a very pretty tree.

Scientific name:
Darmera peltata

Found it!

Knotweed

Lovely pink flowers from Summer until the Autumn frost.

Scientific name:
Persicaria affinis 'Superba'

Found some!

Cat Mint

Lovely purple flowers, that last all Summer.

Scientific name:
Nepeta

Found some!

Bladdernut tree

Unusual shaped seed pods give this shrub its name.

Scientific name:
Staphylea colchica

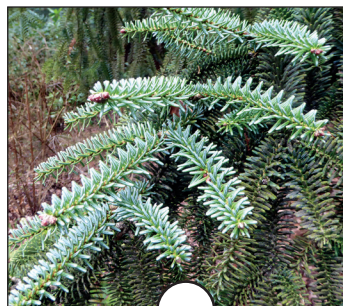

Found some!

Blue Spanish Fir

Looks a bit like a stickle-brick, find this lovely tree.

Scientific name:
Abies pinsapo 'Glauca'

Found it!

Ice Plant

Fleshy leaves and pink flowers for this Summer plant.

Scientific name:
Sedum

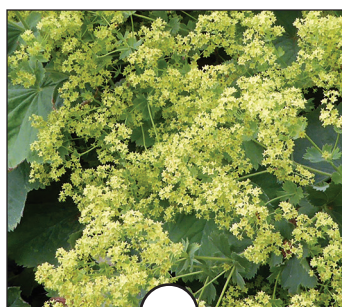

Found some!

Lady's Mantle

Very long flowering herbaceous plant.

Scientific name:
Alchemilla mollis

Found some!

Shrubby Cinquefoil

Butterflies love this deciduous flowering shrub.

Scientific name:
Potentilla fruticosa

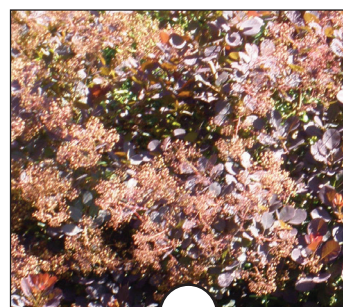

Found some!

Smoke bush

Wispy flowers give this distinctive shrub its name.

Scientific name:
Cotinus coggygria

Found some!

Umbrella plant

Usually, the leaf stalk is in the centre of the leaf!

Scientific name:
Darmera peltata

Found some!

Trails at Shuttleworth

www.shuttleworth.org/trails